

One Gelato – many functions

Functional ice-cream, like our Functional Gelato with BIOGENA inside, offers a unique combination of excellent flavour and nutritional added value. Here are some reasons why you can benefit from functional ice cream:

Indulgence with added value guarantee:

Why go for conventional ice cream when you can benefit from valuable micronutrients at the same time? Our functional gelato indulges your senses and gives your body a nutritional boost.

Targeted support:

The selected micronutrients such as niacin, magnesium and biotin can contribute to various aspects of your health and well-being, be it to support your skin, hair, energy or relaxation*. The benefits of ice cream and function can be combined.

Variety and diversity:

Ice cream with a function opens up new flavor dimensions and expands the spectrum of ice cream enjoyment. From relaxing to energizing variations, there is a suitable flavor for every taste and need.

The Gelato innovation of the year

ICEZEIT and BIOGENA, both proud Austrian companies, have joined forces to push the boundaries of Gelato enjoyment and create a product that is good for both body and soul. With our groundbreaking combination of exquisite gelato and valuable micronutrients, we have created the Gelato innovation of the year.

Our shared commitment to the highest quality and innovation is reflected in every cup and every wafer. We use only the finest ingredients to ensure that every ICEZEIT Gelato with BIOGENA inside is a masterpiece of flavour and nutrition.

Each scoop is handmade with care and attention to detail to give you an unrivaled taste experience.

We are looking forward to working with you!
